

B.A.C. Gymkhana

The weather was bright and sunny, the opposite of the last event, as 8 cars gathered for the latest Gymkhana held at Llandow on Sunday 24th March.

Actually there were 6 cars with 2 of the cars being used twice.

The leading competitor was D. Taylor in the Ford Escort RS Turbo, who was attempting to continue his winning streak, but there was stiff opposition eager to stop him.

Machinery varied from the Escort Turbo down to the Sierra 1600L, with a mixture of performances in between.

An appeal has gone out from Andy Coe for the missing parts from his Mini, the exhaust, parts of trim, or could it be an attempt at reducing weight.

The unofficial results were as follows
